

The Financial Management Association of Australia (FMAA) is offering exciting opportunities for dedicated and enthusiastic students to become an integral team member of Australia's pre-eminent commerce student society.

The FMAA was established in 1990 at The University of Melbourne. With the continuing support of Gold and Founding Sponsor, Macquarie Group, the FMAA actively promotes the career awareness of students and facilitates involvement in commerce related activities.

Our objectives are to:

1. Foster the development of Australia's future business and community leaders;
2. Develop the professional skills of our members;
3. Enhance the employability of our members; and
4. To provide a forum for the interaction between members and their potential employers.

We aim to achieve our objectives by running networking events, professional development workshops and seminars, competitions and producing informative publications.

Your role on the committee

Sub-committee members are given the opportunity to work within a fun, professional and challenging team environment. Your primary roles will be to assist the executive committee, attend and assist in the organizing of FMAA events as well as interacting with student members and sponsor representatives. Successful candidates will have the option of working in events, marketing, operations or sponsorship.

Selection criteria

The FMAA is seeking students with:

- A genuine interest in the objectives and mission of the FMAA;
- Initiative and a keen willingness to learn;
- Excellent interpersonal and teamwork skills;
- Strong time management and organizational skills; and
- Work experience, extra-curricular activities and strong academic performance are advantageous but not essential.
